LOCAL AND STATE LEAGUE
PROGRAM PLANNING

In League of Women Voters parlance, "program" is a plan that sets out what issues the members want to study during the following year. In keeping with our non-partisan stance, we look at all of the aspects and both pros and cons. Members may attempt to formally take a position on which to lobby. Political agendas that are in the arenas of existing League positions also may come under scrutiny.

This year members will provide direction on Greater Tucson and Arizona League program position statements and potential studies. Planning is a crucial aspect of a local League's activity. The League's visibility and influence in the community are the result of local programs and action. It is important to find out where members' interests lie in order to work from common concerns in the group. The goal of this meeting is to identify interests.

Program is the basis for the League's education and action efforts. Positions are added and amended only after members study the issue and reach agreement through a consensus or concurrence process. Action occurs when the League acts using one of these positions. Action can be taken only if a position already exists at the local, state or or national level and only by the president and board of the local, state or national League.

Reviewing League positions: Please print and fill out the forms inserted in this on-line issue of The Voter or bring the insert from the printed Votercopy and bring it to the January meeting. You will find the local and state positions in your gray Membership book and bring it to the meeting. If you are unable to attend, please mail the filled out forms to the League office: LWVGT, 2424 E. Broadway, Tucson, AZ 85719

President's Report

The LWVGT Board wishes everyone a joyous holiday season! You can come to the December 3 members' preview (4:00 p.m. to 7:00 p.m.) of our December 4 Elegant Sale at 2654 N. Campbell. Visit with your LWVGT friends and enjoy refreshments while getting a sneak preview of the "goodies" for sale. Maybe you will find something to buy too!

Your board held a discussion at our last meeting about the lack of civility that we are seeing at many of the forums that were held prior to the general election. It will be necessary to upgrade our spring moderator training for these events to ensure that they are focused on the issues and not on disruptive behavior.

Recently Gini McGirr and I visited the Green Valley unit. I reminded the members that LWVGT is one of the most important factors in keeping democracy alive. During the days before the election, I heard from so many people that they truly trust the LWV because we are non-partisan, non-sectarian. Our primary focus is to inform the voters, and that is much appreciated. Please invite your friends to become members.

Because we inadvertently scheduled our annual meeting for April 22, which is Easter weekend, we have had to change programs and meeting dates for many events in 2011. Please look for those changes elsewhere in the Voter. Mark April 8 for the annual meeting at the Mountain Oyster Club.

LIBRARY PROJECT WRAPUP

About 60 people were registered in total this year during the library project. Our role at the libraries during elections is a good one. Many people asked questions, and those who staffed the tables said that many more said they were registered and going to vote--so our presence there acted as a reminder too.

A debriefing meeting will be held with Library staff to discuss successes and where improvements can be made. We look forward to continued cooperation with the Library and other community organizations."

I wish to thank the following library coordinators: Betty Bengtson, Woods Library; Wendell and Rose Mary Niemann, Columbus Library; Patsy Frannea, Mission Library; Sue DeArmond, Quincie Douglass Library; and Betsy Zukoski and Sally Davenport, Valencia Library.

Note from the Voter Service Committee

To all members seeking to be involved with the LWV, Voter Services provides a great opportunity for you to directly impact our community and you are welcome to join this committee.

Victor Bowleg, Voter Service Chair

Attend a Non-party Party!

No need to get out the party clothes. Just relax at home with your favorite libation while you receive a tax deduction!

Instead of sponsoring a League Holiday Party this year, the Board of Directors of LWVGT cordially invites you to a Stay-At -Home event, and suggests that you spend the money you would have spent on the party by making a check out to the LWVAZ Ed Fund. This helps our local league with its brochures, ballot proposition publications, Library Information projects, Running and Winning program for high school girls, the Kenya Good Governance Project and other voter education programs.

Please mail the check to LWVGT, 2424 E .Broadway, Suite 110, Tucson, AZ 85719

Enjoy a restful evening at home and feel good about helping the League keep democracy alive by quietly continuing its commitment to inform voters and promote the seriousness of our democratic responsibilities. Thank you in advance for your tax deductible contribution and a toast to you in the coming year!

HAPPY HOLIDAYS!

RUNNING AND WINNING REPORT

December 9, 2010 will be the eighth Running and Winning Workshop this time at Cienega High School, Vail, AZ.

The Steering Committee met November 16th to finish planning all tasks, and on November 18th, the Chairs and Moderators visited Cienega for a last meeting with Principal Pena and some of her enthusiastic staff. Carol West (LWVGT) and Nancy Woodling (AAUW) will be co-moderators this year.

We are looking forward to a great high tech day with young high school women:

* discussing the highs and lows of campaigning with our supportive elected and campaign experienced women of

* choosing table candidates and planning Senatorial campaigns;

* giving speeches (on issues) with accompanying power point presentations.

UA Graduate women will facilitate the discussion tables. A WIN-WIN for all!

Thanks to many of you who help.

If any League members wish to contribute to this Voter Service project, please make a check out to LWVAZ Education Fund, subject line--Running and Winning and mail to LWVGT, 2424 E. Broadway, Suite 110 Tucson, AZ 85719.

Imagine Greater Tucson

The plan for "Imagine Greater Tucson" is to open the door to any and all ideas from the entire community. This is a rapidly growing, un-aligned community based effort dedicated to protecting and enhancing our quality of life in the greater Tucson region." We believe in the enormous power of community to inspire and shape a better future for Tucson. The goal is to involve everyone in creating a shared vision for our region's future". From that vision, strategies will be developed by the people of greater Tucson to turn our vision into our future reality. We need your participation to make this successful."

There are community conversations happening from Marana to Sahuarita and in between. To become involved as a scribe or facilitator or participate in a conversation, call 209-2448 or www.volunteer@imaginetgreaterucson.org. A training session is scheduled for Thursday, December 2nd at the Junior League Building on River Road.

ARMS CONTROL UPDATE:

Sue Ward, 1st VP-Program, will give a short update on the LWVUS Arms Control position. This Update was adopted at the LWVUS convention last June.

The League's 1982-84 national security study was intended to add focus and direction to existing support for "efforts to reduce the risk of war, including negotiations on disarmament and arms control" under the UN position. The League has continued to play a key role in legislative efforts to limit funding for unworkable and destabilizing missile defense systems and to uphold the traditional interpretation of the ABM Treaty.

Changes in the nature of international threats have played a great part in the current changes to the League position. For example, "non-state actors" weren't considered in earlier times; since 9/11, the existence of Al Qaeda has introduced an entirely new "actor" into the international picture. Other changes, too, have brought about the current updates to the League's position.

This is a year in which major treaties drafted in earlier years are due for review by the Congressional and Executive branches of government. As a result of this, the League has taken action to keep up to date with current arms control developments.

Update _____

Reviewing League Positions: The task is to prioritize existing positions of the LWVGT and LWVAZ and to suggest potential new local and state studies. While studying the positions, ask yourself: Are they current or out-of-date? Are they still relevant? Do you have questions about them? Do any need changing, dropping, updating or restudying? This is the time to look at potential issues for new studies. Has any issue been raised in other organizations or in the press? Is there a local issue to be studied that is timely? Can it be solved by government action? Does it meet League principles? Can the League make a difference? Does it provide opportunities for League action? Will it raise our visibility and credibility? Are other groups interested?

After you have identified an issue for a new local or state study, write it concisely on the form, being specific but flexible. Next, write a scope for the study to describe the limits of the study and outlines the subject area.

Please complete this form and bring it to the January 15 Program Planning Meeting for discussion. If you cannot attend the meeting, please mail the completed form to Sue Ward, LWVGT, 2424 E Broadway, Tucson, 85719 by January 15, 2011.

FINALLY, WE WON! VOTER ID LAWSUIT

On October 26th, a press release went out stating that the Ninth Circuit of Appeals issued a 2-1 opinion which found that Arizona's proof of citizenship law for all new voter registrants violates the National Voter Registration Act (NVRA) because the NVRA mandates that states "shall accept and use" the federal voter registration form without additional documentation requirements.

Leaguers should now get a lot of the federal registration forms to register new voters.

The LWV of Arizona joined with the Inter Tribal Council of AZ., Inc., the Hopi Tribe, Arizona Advocacy Network (AzAN), American Civil Liberties Union, AARP, and other organizations in a suit against this law.

Sen. Russell Pearce wrote the measure in 2004. It was put on the ballot and passed by 56% of the voters. At that time, it was the first law in the U.S. to require all would-be voters to prove they were U.S. citizens. Last year, the 9th U.S. Circuit Court met in Tucson with former Justice Sandra Day O'Connor as one of the three judges. Now, a year later, the decision has been reached with Justice O'Connor and Judge Sandra Ikuta voting for the decision and Judge Kozinski dissenting on the NVRA issue.

The Governor and Secretary of State have said they would appeal. You can be sure it will go all the way to the U.S. Supreme Court.

Gini McGirr

LEGISLATIVE REPORT

The election is over! All of the TV, radio and newspaper ads are done. The phone call will not be a ROBO call for a candidate. The signs are gone. Now we pick up the pieces and see what happened in our state and nation.

The U.S. Supreme Court will be hearing three cases on Arizona issues. On Nov. 3rd, it heard presentations on tax break donations for private schools which is church vs state. The case on matching funds for Clean Elections has not yet been granted a review but will be by December. The third issue is penalties for employers who knowingly hire illegal immigrants.

Women serving: Women did not do well this year. Depending on outcome of several races, women will hold even in the Senate with 17 seats and could lose one or two of their 73 seats in the House. This would be the first such decline since 1978. On the House side, the GOP fared better, adding 8 new female members but those gains were offset by defeats of at least nine incumbent Democratic women. The number of female governors will remain at six.

U.S. House of Representatives: The GOP picked up two new seats and held onto one. District 1 found (R) Paul Gosar over incumbent Anne Kirkpatrick (D); District 2: Trent Franks, incumbent; District 3: Ben Quayle (R); won the seat of retiring John Shadegg (R); District 4 Ed Pastor (D), incumbent; District 5: incumbent Harry Mitchell (D) lost to David Schweikert (R); District 6: Jeff Flake (R) incumbent; District 7: Raul Grijalva (D) incumbent and District 8: Gabrielle Giffords (D) incumbent.

State Legislature: This was fruit basket upset. Senators are now Representatives and vice versa. The GOP picked up three seats in the Senate and there are now 21 Republicans and 9 Democrats. Leadership positions were picked as follows: Senate Republicans: President-Russell Pearce (he was Speaker of the House last year); Majority leader-Scott Bundgard; Majority whip-Steve Pierce. House Republicans: Speaker-Kirk Adams; Majority leader-Andy Tobin; Majority whip-Debbie Lesko. Senate Democrats: Minority leader David Schapira; Asst. minority leader-Leah Landrum Taylor; Minority whip-Paula Aboud, Tucson. House Democrats: Minority leader Chad Campbell; Asst. leader, Steve Farley, Tucson; Whip Matt Heinz, Tucson.

Propositions:

Prop 106 Health Care Services: Passed with 55% of the vote (The LWV opposed this) Prop 107 Preferential Treatment: Passed with 59% of the vote. (The LWV opposed this) Prop 109 Hunting & Fishing: Failed by 56% of the vote.
Prop 110 State Trust Lands: Failed by 50.39% of vote
Prop 111 Lieutenant Governor: Failed by 59% of the vote.
Prop 112 Initiative Petitions: Doing recount as 50/50%
Prop 113 Secret Ballot: Passed with 60% of the vote.
Prop 201 Medical Marijuana: Passed by 50.13% of vote
Prop 301 "Growing Smarter" Sweep: Failed by 74% of the vote. (The LWV opposed this) Prop 302 "First Things First" Repeal: Failed by 70% of the vote. (The LWV opposed this)

CHARTER SCHOOLS

The LWVAZ has a 1999 position on charter schools. Two years ago, the Tucson league decided to another look at local charter schools now they have been around about 15 years. We have researched both local charter schools and traditional public schools to see how successful charter schools have been, what effect they have had on the traditional public schools and what could be done to make things better.

We felt that it is important for everyone to see the 1999 position on charter schools.

VOTER SERVICES HIGHLIGHTS

■ Voter Services was very active in the greater Tucson community this past election providing and assisting with voter registration, political forums, speaker's on the ballot propositions, moderating community forums and providing training on how to plan and moderate forums. Shirley Muney directed forums; Martha Binns directed the Speakers Bureau and Sally Davenport chaired Voter Registration in the Library project. Gini McGirr conducted the most important task of creating the Voter Guides which so many folks in the community depend on to be educated on the ballot propositions.

■ This fall Shirley Muney, Sally Davenport, Noell Rodriguez, and Victor Bowleg provided a training opportunity for league and community members on the basics of planning and moderating a forum. This includes not only important information but actual role playing to familiarize the participants with all the tools needed to create future effective neutral forums.

■ Voter Service members conducted voter registration throughout the community.

At the 6th Annual Native American Family Wellness Day held at Pima Community College. Phyllis Wassenberg, Maryann Cuddeback, Ginger Fetzer and Victor Bowleg registered over twenty voters. Sue DeArmond and Janice Rosenberg registered voters at the School for Integrated Academics and Technologies/Job Corps.

At a non partisan " Meet the Candidates" community program held by the Hispanic Chamber of Commerce and Latinos for Arizona Shirley Muney and Victor Bowleg registered voters.

■ Several successful forums were held this past election.

The Superintendent of Public Instruction Forum held at Rincon HS was a great learning opportunity. This forum presented us with several challenges in relation to auditorium size, security, demonstrator interruption, and moderator effectiveness, etc. These issues will provide an opportunity to improve future forums this spring with another training provided to the Tucson community on planning and moderating a forum.

Other candidate forums were for TUSD candidates, Amphi School District, Congressional District 7, Legislative District 26 (with 350 attending) District 27. Several were in Green Valley.

The Corporation Commission forum, at the last minute, had only two candidates from the same party able to come. As a result, according to LWVGT forum rules, after each candidate was given time for a short opening address, the forum was canceled. This provided the public an intimate informal conversation with David Bradley and the late Sen. Jorge Garcia.

■ The Speaker's Bureau was chaired by Martha Binns.

Shirley Sandelands, Sally Davenport, Shirley Muney, Betsy Zukoski, Sue Ward, Marion Pickens, Phyllis Carnahan, Betty Geehan, Carol West, Carolyn Badger and Gini McGirr gave talks on the Ballot Propositions. These were at The Academy Village, AAUW, Colonia Verde Women's Assn., NorthWest Center, Catalina Village Assisted Living, Business Principals, and SaddleBrooke country club.

Carol West and Gini McGirr did a half hour radio program on the Propositions for Citadel Broadcasting
